LETTER RECOGNITION: FROM PERCEPTION TO REPRESENTATION: A SPECIAL ISSUE OF COGNITIVE NEUROPSYCHOLOGY (HARDBACK)

Taylor & Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Detailed computational modelling of reading has been much pursued in the past twenty years, and several specific computational models of visual word recognition and reading aloud have been developed. These models offer computational accounts of many aspects of reading, but all have neglected the front end of the reading process, saying essentially nothing about how early visual processes operate during reading and little about how...
